A screenshot of a Windows Command Prompt window titled "Símbolo del sistema". The window has a black background and white text. The command prompt shows the following sequence of commands and output: 1. The user enters the command `C:\Users\mildr\Desktop\C>gcc hola.c -o hola.exe`. 2. The user enters the command `C:\Users\mildr\Desktop\C>hola.exe`. 3. The program outputs `Hola mundo`. 4. The user enters a single underscore `C:\Users\mildr\Desktop\C>_` as a prompt. The window is set against a background with a pink and orange geometric pattern. A small red icon is visible at the bottom center of the image.
